A LETTER FROM OUR CEO

Dear Friends,

Over the last year, I have been humbled by the encouragement and support we have received from the community to help our team rapidly make the necessary adjustments to our program to ensure the safety of our staff, children, volunteers, and families.

After what started as one of our strongest years yet, topped off with a very successful gala in February, we all saw our world quickly change. As Covid-19 infection and mortality rates rose, so did the global chorus of diverse voices decrying social injustices and disparities that imperil people of color.

Even in the face of unprecedented turmoil and fear, the Big Brothers Big Sisters team remained more committed than ever to deliver our mission, and I couldn't be more proud. Literally overnight, our staff began working from home and figured out how we could keep our volunteers and kids connected. We continued to support our staff, families, and volunteers with additional training and check-in calls. And as the world changed, we changed along with it as best as we could.

Through all the challenges that last year brought us, we also celebrated many successes. We received our largest legacy gift to date that will help us get through the coming year and create an endowment for our agency's future. We served over 1,500 youth and continued to hit our development goals. And we also built new partnerships with national and local supporters to continue our important work.

The reality is, COVID-19, the movement against racial injustice, and the loss of thousands of educational hours will continue to impact the lives of our Littles in the future. Our world has been forever changed, and because of this, mentoring is more important than ever. The connections our Bigs and Littles have with each other help to break down barriers and moves us all closer together, even in these times when we remain socially distant.

This annual report highlights the importance of our critical investment in youth mentoring and the impact it makes on not only our children, but their families and our entire community. On behalf of our Board of Directors, staff, and volunteers, we thank you for the continued support of our agency and the children we serve. We will continue to innovate and respond to any of life's challenges in order to shape the future for all of our youth and support them in achieving their full potential.

PROGRAMS

- Our programs are based on the premise that youth need the support and protective factor of a positive adult role model in their lives if they are to improve in a broad array of different skill and resiliency areas.
- One-to-one mentoring directly aligns with, and incorporates, the premises of Positive Youth Development by design.
- We utilize an evidence-based mentor model created by Big Brothers Big Sisters of America, proven in building skills and resiliency for youth.
